The regiment machine gun company, commanded by Lieut: Hal Carr, now has 49 enlisted men and only four, more are needed. "Company D and I each have about sixty men," Colonel Greene said. Each company needs 46 more enlisted men to get up to peace strength. We have not received orders to recruit up to full war strength, 150 enlisted men to the company, but I expect these orders will come along . Machine Gunners Ready. The machine gun company is ready. Lieutenant Carr has 29 men four. The supply company needs regruits, Coptain Groom wants 25 mule drivers immediately. Men who have had experience as teamsters are preferred. On some of the wagons it will be necessary for the driver to handle four mules. "There is a great chance for promotion for men who entist in our regiment now. More sergeants and corporals will be needed when the companies go to full war strength and the men who enlist now and get the training before we leave will be in line for these places. Every man wants to go higher than a private and for that reason, the quicker the young men get in the quicker they will be promoted. The draft is to be started very soon and I believe if I were s young man subject to draft I would rather enlist in my own company and no away under officers from my own city and side by side with the home boys than with a strange regiment. Doctor Janeen drove 175 miles yesterday from Indianapolis, where she performed an operation; in order to fulfill her engagement in Aurora. Her talk was filled with wit and humor as well as many helpful and practical thoughts. She took as her subject the Bible text in Timothy, God hath not given us the spirit of fear, but of power, and of love and of a sound mind." "One reaful in world: work is because she is dominated by petty things. Fear and worry do not belong in any woman's life." She spoke also of weman's influence and responsibility and the opportunities that will come to her when the war is over and real freedom rules the world.

The banquet was served at 6:20 p'clock at tables prettily decorated with spring flowers and foliage. One hundred and thirty-four women were present. Miss Ella Lee Cowgill presided as toastmistress and Mrs. E. J. Gunn, president of the association, gave an address of welcome, Miss Edna Muschler and Miss Verena Langhammer sang several numbers accompanied by Mrs. Luther E. Allen. Circular Fire Escape to Be Put Up-Arranging of Rooms Decided Upon.

A special meeting of the West school board was called last night to discuss plans for the addition to the West high school. The general plans calling for a new wing to the north of the building which will be a duplicate of the south wing were not changed but a circular fire escape like the one at the Young school was

When the new wing is added to the building the completed structure will take the form of a squat letter I, as was first planned.

The basement will be extended and will house the manual training department, a lumber store room and the coal bunkers. With this provision made for the manual training, it will no longer necessary for high sensor Mudents to go back and forth to the Oak atreet school as at present, thus saving much time now lost between buildings.

On the first or ground floor, the hall which extends from the Galena boulevard entrance to the mathematics class room will be continued thru that room into the new auditorium. The Walnut street entrance will thus open upon a large hallway running thru the entire length of the building, which may be used for banquets, exhibits, and the !!ke,

THE PRESENT NEED.

More than one bank in Aurora has had this experience during the past few weeks, since war was declared:

Customer enters, goes to desk, makes out check for entire deposit, asks for gold, receives it, leaves the bank. Customer returns in a few days with same gold, makes out deposif slip for same amount, hands it to teller and departs.

The customer has come to realize the folly of having gold coin about the house, and appreciates the fact that "the government at Washington still survives."

Drawing out a bank account for the mere purpose of hiding it away in an old wool sock, tucking it beneath the rug or sticking it between the bricks in an unused flue is not only idiotic-it is unpatriotic.

Thieves are always abroad, fire is apt to break out the following stords were written, any minute, and boards of directors-men of your own acquaintance whom you have known all your life-do not stand back of money put away in wool socks or

As Frank A. Vanderlip so ably pointed out in his mesiage to the country today, investment in government securities not only helps provide Uncle Sam and his. allies with money but immediately puts that money into circulation thru the purchase of necessities for war. Mr. Vanderlip also hits the nail squarely on the head when he says:

We want to stop all unnecessary work and unnecessary expenditures short off and concentrate on the immense volume of work which has to be done. There is no danger of not having work for everybody: the trouble is that there is more work in sight than can possibly be done, and the question is whether we shall cut off luxuries or necessities. The person who practices self-denial now in order to buy a bond not only nids the government, but provides an offset to future taxation on this account. Then two upper lateral incisors; and following these this two lower lateral incisors: The first molars are cut between the twelfth and fifteenth month. The eye and stomuch feeth are out between the sighteenth and twenty-fourth month. The last four molars are out between the twenty-fourth and thirtleth month. There are 12 teeth in the permanent set. The temporary teeth begin to fall out at about the sixth year and the permanent teeth begin to appear.

For the first two years of life the mouth should be washed twice daily with a solution of boracic acid, one tablespoonful to the pint of water. The mother may do this best by wrapping some absorbent cotton around the index finger and dipping it into the solution when it may be applied with fentle friction to the gums and teeth. After the second year a soft tooth brush and any simple tooth paste or powder; may be used in the morning and before retiring it the evening.

A Safe Store at Which to Trade

A store which shows a continual growth is a good place at which to trade. Our sales of the past year are conceded to be the largest business done by any grocery store in Aurora—to show again over this enormous business proves that our customers are pleased with our merchandise, service, policy and price. Also due to our policy of keeping our prices down to a low level, and never before

did we have such a good chance to show our ability to save our customers

The Rev. E. M. Goff. Word has been received in Aurora of the death in a Riverside, Cal, hospital last Saturday of the Rev. Edward M. Goff, a former pastor of the First Congregational church of Aurora. He was operated on Friday and died Saturday night. The funeral was held at the Congregational church in Riverside and interment was in the demetery there. He leaves a wife and mother. The Reverend Mr. Goff was a nalive of Prince Edward Island and came to Aurora in 1887., His pastorate here, which closed in 1895, was one of the most successful in the history of the local church. He came here from Beardstown. At the close of his Aurora pastorate, the Reverend Mr. Goff went to Riverside, where he was pastor of the church to win the war.

"The European food situation as well as the general war situation there requires every possible effort we can make," he said. "What Europe needs most is wheat and it must have wheat, But it must also have beef and pork products. As for Belgium, the relief system is struggling to its feet after having been practically knocked out by the submarines. Five of our ships have been torpedoed since March 1.

"We have landed only 60,000 tons of food in Belgium during March and April. Deaths greatly increased. The bables were cared for first. They did not die. It was the adults, the old people, the mothers, who suffered. The relief commission has only 30 vessels. It should have 70 to feed Beigium alone."

It's Time To Slip Into Oxfords

Men, You Can Save Dollars During This Absorption Sale

(By Joe Reising)

ERE'S your opportunity, Gentlemen! Just when you need them, when the season beckons and your comfort calls for the wearing of "low cuts", this sale comes to your attention for great profit. A sale of good shoes, not odds and ends, but makes you know to be right - for style, workmanship and wearability.

Your ship's come in, so to speak, with just loads of true values extreme values I rather hate to use the word "bargain," but if it ever stood for anything then its greatest significance may be inferred in connection with this sale.

and for next season. I'm here to tell you that they'll never be priced so low again during this time. Those of you who know anything about the leather situation will appreciate the truth of this assertion.

Another thing! We offer you these oxfords at sale pricesshoes, too, for that matter, right at the beginning of the season, when the prices of other stores are several dollars higher legitimate prices for all of that.

But you know the reason why. you can buy them here for so little. You've read the whole story before, so no use to repeat. What you want to do now is buy-buy two or several pairs while you're about it.

Business is going to keep booming, the world is going to keep on moving same as ever. If you want a pure investment, a sure investment—a real moneymaker-invest in shoes and lots of 'em-here, now,

SAYS GERMAN SOLDIERS HAD TO AID WAR LOAN

the Associated Press Louise Wire. Ameterdam, via London, May 18,— in the course of the budget debate in the reichetag. Wednesdag Deputy Vogthern, socialist, attacked the gaverament for questionable methods in propagandaing the war toan. He said that soldiers in the field had been forced to subscribe and that similar pressure had been exerted on sooperative societies, Herr Vogthern added that the se-ourity of the investment and the rate of interest had been rendered doubtful by an article in the Tages Seltung which said: "Assurances by the government can only be given in the expectation of a large war indemnity."

The deputy asked for an essurance that the interest would not be reduced. In reply the finance minister protested against Herr Vogthern's statements and assured him that subacribers would be safeguarded. He expressed his conviction that the subscriptions of the soldiers were voluntary.

Deputy Cohn, socialist, said that all nilitary writers had counted, even before the war, on a starvation campaign by Great Britain and that it was therefore hypogritical to act as if Germany was surprised by these

Encyclopaedia Britannica printed on genuine India paper

SATURDAY, MAY 26th, one week from tomorrow, and possibly a day before, will end forever your opportunity of owning, in its most useful and usable form, the greatest reference work ever published. NOW—today—you can make a first payment of only $1.00 (to be followed by convenient, small monthly payments for a limited period) and the entire set of 29 volumes will be sent you—to use and profit by while you are paying for them. When the last set is sold you will NEVER have another opportunity of buying the Britannica printed on India paper. Knowledge of facts is the greatest power in the world today. It is the thing that marks the difference between the day laborer and the merchant prince, between the clerk and the general manager, between the cabin boy and the captain.

All the world's knowledge—the facts about every trade, every profession, every art, every industry, every science, is summed up and set down for your use, for the use of your wife, for the use of your boys and girls, in the 29 volumes of The Encyclopaedia Britannica. You cannot own and use these books without growing in knowledge, without increasing your ability, your earning capacity, your intellectual caliber.

Today—NOW—you can buy this wonderful opportunity for Advancement, Power, Educa-Advancement, Power, Education, Efficiency, Profit, Success, Culture and Prosperity for down and as little as $3.00 a month (for the cloth binding) for a limited period. If you wait, you will NEVER be able to buy.

You haven't any time to lose. You simply must look this question squarely in the face and decide it. Will you buy the Britannica NOW and have, at your finger ends, the practical advantage—the actual, positive facts that cover all the achievements of all men from the beginning of the world; all the facts that are known about the world; all the facts about the things men make with their hands and with machines; all the facts about every product in the world, its uses, how it is made, how it is used and where it comes from, the people that produce it or manipulate it; all the facts about every country, its history, development; the biography of every notable man and woman; all the facts about the discoveries of every science—will you have these things as your tools to make success for yourself, your wife and your children, or will you let this chance slip and NEVER have another?

THE publishers of the Encyclopaedia Britannica announce that they have made arrangements for the issue, as soon after the end of the war as possible, of a new volume, containing a full and authoritative history of the war.

The new volume will be written by echolars and experts of the same high character as those who wrote for the Britannica itself, and by many of its own contributors. It will be absolutely impartial, excluding all partisan feeling and prejudice. It

1. A judicial account of the real causes of the war, the progress of the struggle, and the results all over the world; with maps, as necessary, to show changes in boundaries.

2. The lives of the new leaders, whether civil, military or naval, in the belligerent countries.

3. The results of the war outside the sphere of fighting, the progress of surgery, the prevention of contagious disease, the new scientific discoveries, etc.

The new volume will bridge the gap between the days of peace before and after the war. It will be printed and bound to match the Britannica and the publishers guarantee that no matter how difficult and costly the supplementary volume may be from the editorial point of view, the price of it to all who purchase the Britannica during the present sale will not be more than that of a corresponding volume of the Britannica.

The New York Times said, "The Encyclopacdia Britannica is something more than a book—it is an institution."

We do not want even one of these last few sets to go to any one who is not positive that he will find the Britannica useful and helpful to him and his family. There will not be nearly enough sets to supply all those who do know the Britannica will be useful, and who are ordering today, tomorrow and in the next few days.

Do not order unless you know!

But, if you are almost convinced and want to make sure the Britannica will be of practical use and help to you in your business and in your home, go at once to the store named below. Here you can see the entire set of the Britannica, you can prove the value and usefulness of this work to your own needs. (If you go today you may have a choice of bindings.) Learn the prices—and the terms and number of payments it will take to pay for the books while you usethem. You can leave your order there and pay cash, or $1.00 down and the complete set will be sent you as quickly as possible.

If you already know the value of the Britannica to you, or if you : cannot go to the store named below but are convinced you need the Britannica, sign the "Reserve Order" form printed here, pin a one-dollar bill to it, and get it into the mail AT ONCE.

The END of the Sale is HERE!!

Decide NOW, for you will NEVER have another opportunity like this

This sale must end because we cannot get from the publishers any more sets of the "Handy Volume" Issue of the Britannica, printed on genuine India paper

The publishers cannot print any more sets because they cannot get any more genuine India paper.

This is because the war has made it impossible for the paper makers to obtain we essential raw materials for making India paper, a certain quality of flax from Belgium, Germany or Ireland and hemp from Russia. It will be impossible to secure these materials in sufficient quantities for many years after the war-therefore the Britannica can never be printed in the "Handy Volume" form again,

This is what the Dry Goods Economist, a recognised authority in its field, has to may as to the conditions in textiles and allied lines:

A number of causes have contributed to theck the movement of morchandles out of the bands of manufacturers and wholesalers. In many sections of the country temperatures have been lower than retailers had expected. Consumers have held off, as is usual at this between-seasons period, and the advice given in many quarters that people ought to econ omine has had a deterrent influence The price of foodstuffs is mentioned by retailers in some centers as having an adverse influence on the sale

Distributors, moreover, are now to pressed with the contingencies ereased by our entrance into the war These contingencies have been with us right along since the sinking of the Lusitania, or, in other words, for fully two years. The thoughtful merchant has litle more ground for apprehension now than he has had right along, and the sooner this fact is recognized the better it will be for all concerned. Some of the conditions which have led to the recent great prosperity will be not only continued, but accentuated. Still higher prices, however, must be looked for in some lines. The willingness of consumers to pay so much for . tosted as never before, pespecially as many retailers have delayed raising their prices until they were absolutely forced to do so.

No More All-Wool Fabrica, Day by day it is made more clear that all-wool fabrics must for the time being be a thing of the pastdue to the scarcity of the raw material, rather than to the high prices, Prices of wool, however, have continued to advance and are now very much higher than they were a month ago. When prices for wool and worsted dress goods for spring, 1918, are made the price of wool will be clearly reflected therein, even the the goods may contain more cotton. # Keep Business Going FOR OUR COUNTRY'S SAKE!

Keep money in circulation-keep employment for everybody-keep wages good-keep on making money that we may have more money to spend, war or no war. There is no room for the pessimist in this country-let us all be optimistic. Factories must be kept going to their full capacity -laborers must be employed-homes must be kept upwomen must be well dressed-being well dressed necessitates the wearing of a high grade corset. The sale records of our shop prove that this season women appreciate Sa Camille" front lace corsets as never before. They know that the Ventilo back preyents pressure on the spine, and permits of real ventilation. They realize that the Ventilo front shield allows greater range of adjustment. They come here for their corsets because they know that we try conscientiously to give the highest degree of service.

Says Joe Frey:

CCHLITZ BEER is a superior arti-O cle—it is in a class by itself.

The Schlitz put up in brown bottles, sold at my store and delivered to your door for home consumption at 65c the dozen pint bottles, is by long odds the best table beer in the market.

It has the true taste of the grain, a flavor delightful to the palate, and its after effect is exhilarating but not intoxicating.

And it aids--does not retard--digestion.

One case in your home will prove to you my contention that "Schlitz is the King of all Beers."
